DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 01/28/04 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Salz and Reich, II.

Salz discloses the claimed invention except it is uncertain if the main body 120 is made of a mesh material and the outer cover 110 has a smooth surface. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use a mesh material for the Salz main body and a smooth surface material for the Salz outer cover, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416.

Further, Salz discloses the claimed device, as discussed above, except for the main body having a detachable, waterproof inner bag. Reich, II discloses that it is known in the art to provide a detachable, waterproof inner bag 18 within the main body of another flexible bag. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the main body of Salz with the detachable, waterproof inner bag of Reich, II, in order to protect the contents of the main body from water damage.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 01/28/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In response to applicant's argument that "The Salz and Reich II combination does not teach or suggest the three component construction of the bag means of Claim 1.", the test for obviousness is not whether the features of a secondary reference may be bodily incorporated into the structure of the primary reference; nor is it that the claimed invention must be expressly suggested in any one or all of the references. Rather, the test is what the combined teachings of the references would have suggested to those of ordinary skill in the art. See In re Keller, 642 F.2d 413, 208 USPQ 871 (CCPA 1981).

Art Unit: 3727

Regarding applicant's argument that the combination of Salz and Reich II "would not arrive at the present claimed construction where a smooth-surface detachable outer cover is provided that is formed to just fit on the main body so as to cover the mesh material completely, as called for in amended Claim 1.", Fig. 4 of Salz shows the detachable outer cover 110 completely covering the main body 120. The outer cover 110 of Salz is "formed to just fit" the main body 120 to the degree that applicant has set forth the metes and bounds of the phrase "formed to just fit" in the specification, as originally filed.

Conclusion

5. All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the application prior to the entry of the submission under 37 CFR 1.114 and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the application prior to entry under 37 CFR 1.114. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action after the filing of a request for continued examination and the submission under 37 CFR 1.114. See MPEP § 706.07(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
